2012 HOLDEN BARINA

The Holden Barina is a light compact car that most people are familiar with.

It continues to come up as a strong and sensible value driven contender in this competitive end of the market. The Barina has one of the larger interiors and measures a close-to-its-peers. There is really good headroom front and rear, and the drivers seat has height adjustment - meaning taller drivers can lower themselves in pretty nicely.

Vehicle Imports Direct is a family owned Car Dealership in Hamilton selling quality used vehicles at everyday low prices. We have a huge social media presence with over 28,000 followers and online testimonials for you to review.
